

Unveil the Magic of the Middle East:

THE GOLDEN MIRAGE TAKES OVER CITY OF DREAMS SRI LANKA

From November 28 – December 2

Colombo | Adfactors Press Release

City of Dreams Sri Lanka is set to ignite Colombo's festive season with "Signature Golden Mirage", a breathtaking celebration inspired by the enchanting world of Arabian Nights and curated in honour of UAE National Day. Step into a world of Arabian Nights enchantment as Signature Golden Mirage unfolds at Casino, City of Dreams Sri Lanka. Experience the magic from 28 November 28 to December 2, (2025) and let every moment transport you into a desert dream brought to life. Level 6 will be reborn as a shimmering desert fantasia—an opulent oasis where fantasy and festivity collide in truly unforgettable style.

Guests will be swept into a realm of Middle Eastern grandeur the moment they arrive. Towering Arabic arches, cascading lantern-light and exquisitely detailed décor create a golden tapestry that evokes the magic of ancient souks and palatial courtyards. Every corner glows with the elegance, warmth and mystique of the desert, inviting visitors to lose themselves in an atmosphere unlike anything Sri Lanka has ever experienced.

As night falls, the space comes alive with an electrifying blend of cultural artistry and modern rhythm. Dancers weave through the crowd with hypnotic grace, the deep heartbeat of the darbuka merges seamlessly with a high-energy DJ set, and masterful Tanoura performers spin their technicolour whirls beneath glistening lights. To complete the experience, guests will be welcomed with complimentary Arabic coffee, brewed and served in the time-honoured tradition that has defined Middle Eastern hospitality for centuries. Whether you are celebrating chasing the vibrant pulse of Middle Eastern nightlife, or simply seeking an extraordinary evening with friends, Signature Golden Mirage promises five nights drenched in mystique, splendor and golden enchantment.

Indian Festival to Illuminate Sri Lanka in Early 2026

In a remarkable celebration of cultural heritage a grand festival of cinematic artistry an "Indian Film Festival" is to be brought to Sri Lanka by Australian based Serendib News and Travel Express. The festival is planned in association with local counterparts and will be a week long programme themed 'Indian Week' and is set to host in early 2026. "The Indian Week is a mix of Art & Food that combines Entertainment with Food & Beverages. Festival is not just about films only; it also promises to showcase Indian cuisine and cultural performances, which many Sri Lankans find appealing" said Geethika Weerakoon, Chief Editor/Director Serendib News & Travel Express at a meeting held at Cinnamon Grand Colombo.

She also said "An iconic Indian celebrity graces the stage. Introducing PVR (Public Viewing Room), followed by an elegant backdrop experience with drinks, photos, and media moments". She said this vibrant Indian Week will span across key cities including Colombo, Jaffna, and Kandy, and this festival will serve as a dynamic platform for showcasing the rich tapestry fostering cultural exchange and strengthening the enduring bonds between Sri Lanka and India".

Geethika further noted that many Sri Lankans are eager to witness the celebration of Indian cinema, which has significantly influenced the art, culture and cousin. The festival is expected to draw large crowds, especially from the avid followers of Indian cinema. The chance to experience Indian culture through food and art adds to the excitement surrounding the event while emphasizing the deep-rooted ties between Sri Lanka and India. Sri Lanka and India are intertwined through rich stories, traditions, and artistic collaboration. From the arrival of Buddhism in Sri Lanka in the 3rd century BCE to the ongoing influence of Indian music, dance, cuisine, and cinema, both countries have significantly impacted each other's cultural landscapes. Epics such as the Ramayana and the Mahayana illustrate this profound bond.

The Indian Week includes following events. An Awards and Gala Night - a prestigious evening dedicated to honoring outstanding achievements of film. Movie Networking Night with an elegant gathering designed to facilitate collaboration and industry connections. Judging Day for Lifetime Contributions to be a special occasion to recognize those whose lifelong dedication has influenced the world of cinema. A workshops for University Students aimed at inspiring the next generation of filmmakers.

The Indian Week and the Film Festival is supported by Sri Lanka Tourism and esteemed sponsors and partners including Cinnamon Grand Colombo, SriLankan Airlines and negotiations are progressing with further organizations. Sponsorship opportunities are expected to offer as Title Sponsor, Presenting Sponsor, Gold & Silver Partners, Hospitality Partner and any other proposed title.

The focused target audiences are; Cinema enthusiasts in Sri Lanka, Indian expat community, University students and film scholars, Art and culture lovers, Media and influencers and those who love entertainment and Indian cousin.
