

Chutneys' breathed new life at Cinnamon Citadel Kandy

Chutneys' Restaurant, renowned in Colombo for its premium Indian cuisine breathed new life at Cinnamon Citadel Kandy with the grand opening as "Taste of India in the Hills" last weekend. Chutneys will cater to residents and travelers to Kandy. On Friday, Colombo's famous Chutneys Restaurant continued to operate within the Cinnamon hotels group offering à la carte and buffet-style dining and famous themed food. A distinguished and loyal guests of the Cinnamon Citadel hotel gathered at the ceremony including media. Speaking at the opening ceremony Charith Goonasekera Resort Manager at Cinnamon Citadel Kandy noted the name "Chutney" reflects its Indian culinary focus, as chutneys are essential condiments in Indian dining. He revealed the purpose of revamping the Chutneys in Kandy as they needed to replicate the unforgettable flavors of the original Chutneys Restaurant, beloved in Cinnamon Grand Colombo for its authentic Indian dishes. "The move addresses the growing appetite for high-quality Indian cuisine in Kandy, combining heritage recipes with refined dining" he said. Resort Manager's Insight disclosed "We recognized the potential to bring Chutney's iconic dining experience to Kandy as it allows guests who cherished the Colombo outlet to relive those flavors, while introducing new patrons to excellence in Indian culinary artistry." According to the Indian head Chef the menu retains signature dishes like Hyderabad biryani, tandoori grills, dal makhani, kebabs and with possible regional adaptations aligned to mirror the elegant ambiance and service standards of the original Chutneys.

He also said this move strengthens Cinnamon Hotels & Resorts' footprint in Sri Lanka's hospitality sector, blending Colombo's gourmet legacy with Kandy's cultural charm. The rich, flavorful Indian cuisine served at the occasion were praised by the diners for being well-spiced and true to traditional recipes. The Chutney Restaurant was originated at Cinnamon Grand Colombo and become a signature dining venue specializing in North Indian cuisine. It has been a favorite among local elites, tourists, and business travelers, often regarded for its high-quality service and flavorful dishes. Over the years, Chutney Restaurant has maintained its reputation as one of Colombo's top Indian restaurants.

CLAUDE GUNASEKERA

