

Galle Face Hotel Hosts In-Voyage Networking Evening

The Galle Face Hotel proudly hosted the third In-Voyage Networking Evening on its legendary Chequerboard, bringing together a distinguished gathering of international luxury travel professionals, high-end event booking agents, and industry leaders from around the world.

The Galle Face Hotel hosted the "In Voyage 2025" celebration, which concluded with a Farewell Dinner, at the hotel. Earlier in the month, it also hosted the "In-Voyage Networking Evening" on its Chequerboard, a special event for international luxury travel professionals.

The "In-Voyage Networking Evening" took place on the hotel's historic Chequerboard, with the Indian Ocean as the backdrop. The evening, organized in partnership with Cinnamon Life and Walkers, was a celebration of collaboration, innovation, and global connections. Guests experienced an unforgettable evening that blended elegance, fine dining, and the warmth of Sri Lankan hospitality.

"We are honoured to host such an exclusive event that showcases the spirit of connection and excellence within the luxury travel industry", said Suresh Abbas, General Manager, Galle Face Hotel. With a legacy spanning over 160 years, the Galle Face Hotel remains one of Asia's most celebrated landmarks, continuing to host some of the region's most prestigious events and distinguished guests. Abbas further said.

The evening, organized in partnership with Cinemone Life and Walkers, was a celebration of collaboration, innovation, and global connections. Guests experienced an unforgettable evening that blended elegance, fine dining, and the warmth of Sri Lankan hospitality. Cinnamon Life CEO Sanjiv Hulugalle also took part in the farewell.
